

Ariah Park & District Combined Field Day

The Ariah Park local agricultural businesses and groups are holding a field day including on farm visits, information sessions and experts in the field on hand throughout the day

Monday 5th August

9.30am Ariah Park Footy Club Rooms

The morning session will be at the club rooms

The afternoon session will be a district bus tour

9.30am Morning tea

10.00 am Presentations:

- Overview of 6 soil moisture probes recently installed in Ariah Park apart of a Mirrool Landcare project. How you can access live data to use as a tool when making decisions about nitrogen application
- Paul Breust Farmlink – Practical application of moisture probe information and yield prophet
- John Angus CSIRO and Jim Laycock Incitec – Nitrogen application
- James Hunt CSIRO – Increasing yield with early sown varieties, Impacts of grazing livestock on soil and crop yields

12.30 pm Lunch

1.30 pm Charlie Clemson Ardlethan – Advanced early sown Bolac at flag leaf stage. James Hunt, Rob Hart (Hart Bros Seeds) and Terry Edis (Elders) to discuss

2.30pm Paul Griffin Ardlethan – Moisture probe data over multiple years and yield prophet. James Hunt, Paul Breust and Jamie Pursehouse (Landmark) to discuss

4.00pm Geoff Tidd Ariah Park – Stubble management project, Paul Breust and James Hunt to discuss. Pasture trials, Richard Hayes (DPI) and Jamie Pursehouse to discuss

4.30pm Michael Denyer Ariah Park – Brief look at recently installed moisture probes, time permitting.

5.00pm Conclude at Ariah Park Bowling Club

Catering will be provided by the Ariah Park Central School hospitality students. To cover catering, cost for the day will be $10. Payments to be made to Farmlink Research Ltd BSB 062557 Acc. 10073508. Include your name and MIRROOL.

If it is wet the event will still be on. Bring some gumboots.

For information on the day contact Robyn Buerckner 69732132 0429 366 374 robyn.buerckner@cma.nsw.gov.au

There has been interest in the day from Barellan and Temora so please RSVP.

RSVP to Judith at Farmlink 69244633
judith@farmlink.com.au
Tues 30th July

A.L. CHALMERS & SON

Catchment Management Authority
Murrumbidgee