

Communities in Landscapes field day

15 March 2012

at Glenwood, the property of Norm (2011 NSW Farmer of the Year) and Pip Smith, 12 Mile Road Wellington

The day will cover what Communities in Landscapes has been doing to help local communities to work together to integrate conservation and production across Box Gum Grassy Woodlands and includes:

- 10–10.30 am: Morning tea
- 10.30–11.30 am: Welcome and short presentations about the highlights of the CiL project from project partners.
- 11.30 am–1 pm: Tour of Glenwood with hands-on presentations of his approach grazing and natural resource management with input from farmers and CiL partners.
- 1–2 pm: BBQ lunch at Glenwood shearing shed.
- 2–3.30 pm: Tour of other members of the Uamby Creek Cross-Property Biodiversity Planning Group sites with input from farmers and CiL partners.

Communities in Landscapes has been managed by Landcare NSW Inc. with partners: Box Gum Grassy Woodland Conservation Management Network, NSW DPI, NSW OEH, CSIRO, Sydney University, Stipa Native Grasses Association and Greening Australia.

RSVP by 22 February to Ms Rocio Pizarro

p 02 8627 1000, f 02 86271099, e rocio.pizarro@sydney.edu.au

Please inform Rocio:

- of your expected arrival time at Glenwood
- if you want lunch at Glenwood
- of any dietary requirements.