

Come and learn about....

Upland Swamps

World
Wetlands Day
2 February 2016

Wetlands for our Future
Sustainable Livelihoods

of the Neville Region— our precious watershed wetlands

- ◆ Find out what makes our local upland swamps so special
- ◆ Learn how important they are and what can be done to protect them
- ◆ Hear from the experts, learn from the practitioners
- ◆ Join the kids on a voyage of swampy discovery

Talks by Upland Swamp experts

Dr Andrew Rawson “The formation of Upland Swamps and their importance in a changing climate”

Dr Barb McTaggart “The value of swamps to our environment and water quality”

Activities for invited schools—learn with the kids and from the kids

Hear the story of a swamp ‘rescue’ and learn how to help your local swamp—Popes Glen Landcare’s Alan Lane and a practical swamp rehabilitation demo by the Bushdoctor, Shane Grundy

When—Tues Feb 2, 2016 9.30am -4.30pm

Where—meet at the Neville Pub to carpool into 4WDs

What to bring—hat, sunscreen, solid shoes and long pants (as we’ll be walking in the wetlands you may get wet and/or muddy)

RSVP essential please to Andy McQuie,

Community Engagement, OEH—mob 0409 563 134
email andy.mcquie@environment.nsw.gov.au

Lunch and afternoon tea provided

